Woman's Club.

The April meeting of the St. Johnsbury Woman's Club was one of the largest of the year. The fine weather brought out a full representation of club members and there were 39 guest tickets sold. The president called the attention of the club to the arts and crafts exhibit to be given at the State Federation meeting at Brattleboro next fall. A feature of the meeting was the selections by the club chorus under the leadership of Mrs. Anna S. Cross. The chorus has been very generous to the club this year and their selections are always enjoyed.

Monday they sang, "Old Kentucky Home," "How It Happened" and "Good Night," to the delight of all. Mrs. Truax gave a report of the three school libraries which the club owns. Mrs. Irene L. Clark and Miss Helen A. Boynton played a sonata by Gade which gave great enjoyment to the club. Mrs. Frelow Spaulding reported the work of the district nurse, Mrs. Houston, who has made 100 visits. He explained the cooker itself and the uses made of it saying it would cook practically everything except white bread. In the presence of the Home Economics committee he had previously prepared and cooked roast beef, boiled ham, spinach and potatoes. In the Fireless Dinner Pail for the use of workmen, lamb stew had been prepared. All these foods were sampled by the company and everyone had a chance to look the cooker over carefully. Everyone was greatly interested and enjoyed seeing what can be done with so small an outlay of labor and fuel.

Mrs. P. F. Hazen extended an invitation to the music class to meet at her home Thursday afternoon of this week from three to six o'clock.

The annual election of officers will be held at the May meeting, and announcement was made that Mrs. Hazen, the present incumbent, and Mrs. C. H. Branch in Canada. Ralph B. Hooker was in Montreal recently in the interests of O. V. Hooker & Son. Arrangements were made for the manufacture of their Thompson improved spark extinguisher in Canada and a branch office was opened at 337 Craig street, west. This machine has just received the endorsement of several insurance companies who are granting a reduction in premium where it is used in connection with steam woodworkers.

With this additional endorsement of its merits a great demand has been created both in the states and in Canada, which has necessitated a Canadian branch to better handle that trade and to save the heavy duty. Inquiries and orders are being received daily and arrangements are being made for manufacture on a very large scale at both Montreal and here.
